

Gin and Vermouth – plain martini – won't like it.

Dry martini – gin

Dirty martini – gin and olive juice

Best gin for a Martini – Chocolate Martini's are not actually martini's just served in the same glass.

Cape Cod – Vodka and cranberry juice

Cosmopolitan – 1 oz vodka, ½ oz triple sec, ½ oz lime juice, ½ oz cranberry juice

Pearl Brand good – Bigger costs are based on advertising

Cheaper vodka will give you a worse headache.

Jello shots – chill your liquor first. If you put your liquor in while the jello is hot you will lose your alcohol.

Pomegranate Martini – Fill cup of vodka, add ice, shaken not stirred, pour in martini glass

Watermelon Martini – add a lime s

Twist is a peel that is twisted

Cherry Vodka and Mt. Dew (Ski) – Melissa says it's really good

Cherry Vodka, 7up and cranberry juice is great but filling.

Long Island Iced Tea – 5 white liquors – 1 oz of each

Rum, Vodka, Tequila, Peach Schnapps, Triple Sec, Splash of Coke

If making a gallon of drinks don't add ice to them, it will dilute your drink and it will taste different. Quick fix – fill a bottle full of water and freeze it to keep the drink mix cold. Had you attended the meeting you would know this!

Amaretto Sour – Clinton County Style – any sour, 2 oz Amaretto & splash of 7up

Any Stone Sour – has a splash of orange juice

Drunken chic note – Get less drunk by drinking a soda and a schnapps instead of a soda and vodka.

Margarita and Daiquiri – Find the all fruit mix in the drink aisle and mix in a blender with ice and 2 oz rum.

Jessie's favorite drink – Blueberry vodka and cranberry juice

Blueberry Vodka and 7up – REALLY GOOD!
